DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Combination/subcombination

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-5, drawn to an electroacoustic transducer for vibrating part of the body of a musical instrument, classified in class 84, subclass 723.
  - II. Claims 6-9 drawn to conductor routing system, classified in class 340, subclass 533.
  - III. Claims 10 drawn to a controller/amplifier circuit, classified in class 84, subclass 741.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions of each of groups I-III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, inventions can each be used for their respective uses has separate utility such as dilatometer can be used to measure any gap. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Invention I and II are related as combination (invention I) and subcombination (invention II). Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particular of the subcombinations as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because Invention II does not required necessarily an electroacoustic transducer to combine multiple signals. The subcombination (invention II) has separate utility such as a conductor routing means for combining multiple signals through a single multi-conductor electrical cable.

Invention I and III are related as combination (invention I) and subcombination (invention III). Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particular of the subcombinations as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because Invention III does not required an electroacoustic transducer to amplify a pickup signal. The subcombination (invention III) has separate utility such as a controller/amplifier circuit for any musical instrument sustainer.

Invention II and III are related as combination (invention II) and subcombination (invention III). Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particular of the subcombinations as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because Invention III does not required a conductor routing means to amplify a pickup signal. The subcombination (invention III) has separate utility such as a controller/amplifier circuit for any musical instrument sustainer.

Art Unit: 2837

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II-III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. In accordance with MPEP 812.01, as revised July 1996, because of the complexity of issues involved in the following election of species, no telephone call was made to the Applicant to receive an election.
